Pink and silver skyrockets and a motorcade of open convertibles bearing red flares heralded the opening of Pottstown's Eisenhower-for-President headquarters last night.

Lt. Gov. Lloyd H. Wood, Evansburg, rode in an open convertible at the head of the motorcade.

From a trailer-flat platform decorated in an apron of red paper in front of the Merchants hotel, he asked an estimated 800 spectators gathered to support the candidacy of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower for President.

Convertible riders waved cardboard Eisenhower and Nixon posters. They gathered in front of the platform in the middle of High street to listen to Wood as he delivered his address.

Spectators rallied on the four corners of High and York streets.

GROMYKO ASKS UN TO PUT WAR ON AGENDA FIRST

Move Comes as Surprise;
Acheson Will Handle
Debate for US

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Oct. 15 (AP)—Russia's Andrei A. Gromyko today demanded first priority consideration of the Korean War issue by the United Nations. His surprise move came as Secretary of State Acheson worked on a policy speech said to contain a watered-down section on Korea.

Gromyko proposed in the Assembly's Steering committee that the Korean item be put first on the list of subjects to be considered by the 60-nation Political committee, where Acheson himself is expected to handle the Korean debate for the United States.

Lester B. Pearson of Canada, Assembly president and chairman of the Steering committee, said each committee would decide the order of its own business, and Gromyko let it go at that.

The Russian delegate did not show Moscow's hand further than to let the Russians want the politically-charged Korean question debated immediately—before the Nov. 4 presidential election in the United States. Gromyko did not mention the elections but the schedule he advocated means Korea would come up in a few days.

ACHESON WAS said to be working out a moderate speech on (Continued on Page Two)

Gerald Kurtz, Sanafoga, was hanging onto the bottom of this 30-foot television antenna when it bent and started to topple, toward these 4000-volt electric wires along Myrtle street, Penn Village. Kurtz let go in the nick of time and escaped injury. Electricity in Penn Village was blacked out. The high pole, implanted in the ground, is needed because TV aerials are not permitted on roofs of the project.

Electricity Cut Off in Penn Village As TV Pole Falls on 'Live' Wires

Electricity for the 117 families in Penn Village was cut off for more than an hour yesterday morning when a 30-foot television pole fell onto "live" wires.

Gerald Kurtz, Sanafoga, who was holding the pole when it fell, escaped injury. A repairman for the firm of Harry W. Overholzer, 38 State street, he was working outside the home of Mrs. Pearl Norris, 35 Myrtle street, at about 8:30 o'clock.

Overholzer said that Kurtz and other repairmen were working on the ground with the antenna. Penn Village residents are not permitted to have TV aerials on their roofs.

Apparently there was a slight bend in the long pole, which caused it to start leaning. Overholzer praised Kurtz for his quick-thinking in letting go of the pole before it was too late.

Philadelphia Electric company repairmen joined the television men in removing the antenna from the wires. The PE crew replaced the main fuse. Power was restored at about 9:30 o'clock.

Five passenger trains and four freight trains were delayed yesterday morning by the derailment of a diesel switching engine on a Reading company track at the east end of an aqueduct across Mantawny creek.

All eight wheels of the 600-horsepower engine came off the track as it was pulling three freight cars eastward at 3:55 o'clock. The track is a short "crossover" stretch that connects two main tracks.

To keep train traffic flowing on the one open track, the railroad had men stationed at Linfield and Stowe "cross-overs" to make sure no train got through that would be "bucking" traffic.

C. Cleaver Root, Marking His 81st Birthday, Announces Retirement From Business Life

One of Pottstown's oldest merchants, C. Cleaver Root, 1001 Bellevue avenue, announced his retirement from business on his 81st birthday yesterday.

Root didn't especially enjoy making the announcement because his business was indirectly connected with another line of work that has helped keep him young for many years.

Since 1916, Root has been a local distributor of boy scout uniforms and equipment, and since that time he also has been active in boy scout work in this community.

His own words probably express best what this work has meant to the man. "The only way I stayed young was to work with young people," he said.

IT IS not by choice that Root is leaving his business and favorite pastime. Ill health forced the decision.

He has recently returned from a month's stay at Pottstown hospital and since being home has been restricted to a rest routine with a minimum of activity.

RED HILL OPENS OBSERVANCE OF 50TH BIRTHDAY

Burgess Tagert Tells Church Audience of Community Work

CO-OPERATION STRESSED
OF ALL TOWNSPEOPLE

"Most of the people who built the borough of Red Hill were members of St. Paul's Lutheran church," Burgess James E. Tagert told 400 persons at the church last night during services commemorating the 50th anniversary of the borough's incorporation.

"They were not selfish," he said. "They did everything for their church and their community. They built both."

Tagert, who has been burgess of Red Hill for more than 23 years and who is chairman of the committee planning the golden anniversary of the borough, spoke at the services last night to begin the week's celebration in the community.

"When the church here burned to the ground 57 years ago, the people worked together and built it back up, bigger and better," the burgess said. "The same thing with the borough."

"Fifty years ago, 472 people signed the petition to make Red Hill a borough. Since that time, through co-operation of everyone (Continued on Page Five)

CAR DEMOLISHED AS IT SMASHES THROUGH GARAGE

Damage to Auto Set at $900;
Driver Pleads Guilty,
Pays Fine, Costs

Many a driver has damaged a car somewhat in getting it inside a garage, but it remained for a 21-year-old Pottstown man to demolish a car in doing so.

Reading State police reported yesterday that a 1949 sedan, was a total ($900) wreck after going out of control Tuesday night on a hill near Pine Forge, then crashing through heavy doors of a garage along the roadside.

The car entered the garage neatly, if violently — flattening the doors completely and smashing into a roller disc and a reaper at the far end of the garage, which is on the property of Harry M. Focht and which had been converted from a barn.

The driver, Clark Jeffries Jr., 21, of 649 Beech street, pleaded guilty to charges of reckless driving without a license before Justice of the Peace Charles Templin of Stowe and paid $27 in fines and (Continued on Page Two)

He Can Still Smile

Earl Duckworth, 1031 Park drive, and his daughter, Mary Ellen, can muster smiles even though they know that his luck in finding $130 worth of money and $50 worth of checks is running out. Duckworth found the money scattered on the sidewalk near High and Hanover streets. His conscience led him to go back to the spot. On the second trip, he found checks identifying the money's owner, whom he notified promptly.

Joyful Dream Comes to Life Briefly Until Man's Conscience Speaks Up

By FRED C. SELBY
(Mercury Staff Writer)

One of the most common of our happy dreams—finding and picking up a big scattering of lost money—came to life briefly near High and Hanover streets yesterday morning for Earl Duckworth, 1031 Park drive.

At about 10:40 o'clock, as he was walking north on the sidewalk past Rose Singer shoppe, 20 North Hanover street, he saw several bills scattered in a wide circle on the sidewalk. There was no one else near them.

Duckworth stooped down quickly and looked at several of the bills, expecting to find they were $1 bills or at the most, $5 bills. They were $10 bills and $20 bills—one, two, three, four, five of each, a total of $150.

As he was picking them up, a middle-aged woman who had been walking behind him slowed her pace long enough to observe Duckworth.

He muttered, "My glory Oh, my glory," as he picked up one $10 or $20 bill after the other.

The woman showed a brand of stoicism that would have done credit to the mystics who sleep on beds of nails. "What do you know about that," she told Duckworth casually, and kept on walking.

"After I'd picked them all up," Duckworth said, "I looked around to see if there was anybody in sight who looked like they might have lost them, but I didn't see anybody."

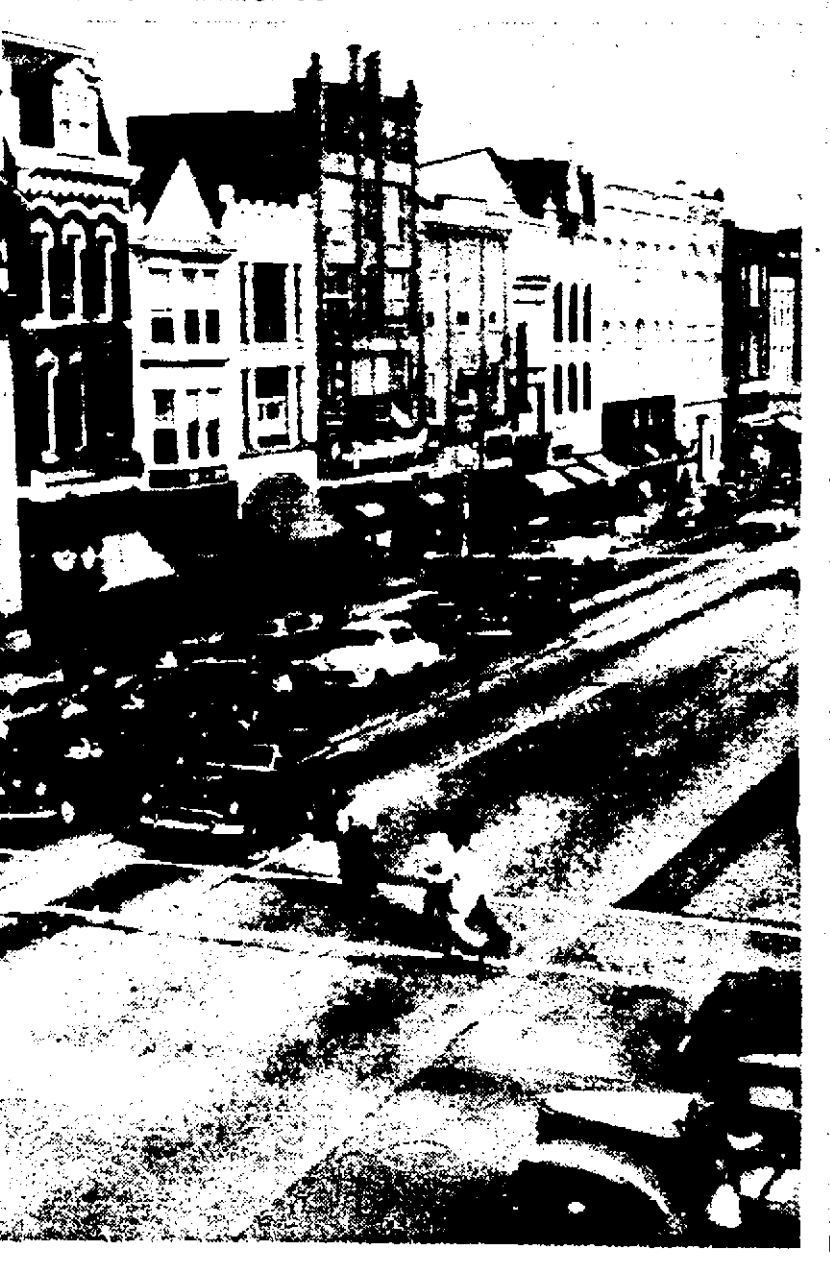

Duckworth walked toward his car, parked near Hanover and King streets, when the Voice of Conscience spoke, saying in effect: "Go back and search the sidewalk for a pocketbook or something else that might identify the person who lost this money."

Duckworth obeyed the voice and went back to the spot. He (Continued on Page Two)

In contrast with other communities in the State where air raid tests were conducted at 1:50 p. m. yesterday, "business went on as usual" in Pottstown as evidenced by this scene at the corner of High and Hanover streets. Local civil defense authorities did not sound the alarm because they termed the borough's four sirens inadequate. (Another picture on Page Two).

Price Boosted 1 Cent a Quart On Milk Today

Housewives will get a little less change from milkmen when they pay their weekly bills from now on—the price of milk goes up one cent a quart today.

The State Milk Control commission recently authorized an increase of one cent on all grades of milk to go into effect today. Similar increases began in Philadelphia and Norristown Oct. 1.

Starting today the prices of the various grades of milk will be: Grade A, 26½ cents; standard, 24½ cents; homogenized vitamin D, 25½ cents; chocolate milk, 24½ cents; buttermilk, 24½ cents; skim milk, 17½ cents; grade B homogenized or cream line, 24½ cents; and golden Guernsey, 26½ cents.

Cream prices also have been affected by the boost. Cream which was selling for 77 cents a quart yesterday will be sold for 81 cents today. Pints have been raised from 42 to 44 cents and half pints from 23 to 24 cents.

WHIPPING CREAM will go up ten cents, from $1.26 to $1.36 per quart. Pints which were selling for 71 cents now will be 75 cents, and half pints have been boosted from 39 cents to 41 cents.

The butter price will not be affected directly by the price increase in the grades of milk. Trading on the New York butter market governs the price in this area. Quotations at the market vary daily.

Cream cottage cheese, which is not controlled by the Milk commission, may be a penny or two higher to the consumer today. Fruit drinks which many milkmen deliver to their customers will remain constant today.

Pottstown children will not have to get extra pennies for milk and (Continued on Page Fourteen)

POLICE QUESTION FRIEND ABOUT MAN'S DROWNING

Death of John Prutzman
Under Re-Investigation
Hat Found at Distance

Pottstown police questioned an acquaintance of John Prutzman, 61-year-old homeless man, yesterday as part of the re-investigation into Prutzman's death.

Prutzman's body was found in the mill race near South Hanover street the past Sept. 12. Police reported after the original investigation that there was no evidence of foul play.

The re-investigation began after a sister of the dead man, Mrs. John Morton, 70 High street, told police she had heard a report that a young Pottstown man had pushed him into the race, presumably after a scuffle.

The statement made by the man questioned yesterday was not made available to newsmen. Plain-clothesman Lewis M. Borgiet said there was no significant new development in the case.

Among the clues that police were reported yesterday as re-investigating was the fact that Prutzman's pork-pie hat was found, not in the water, with him but along the bank a considerable distance from the point where he is believed to have fallen in.

DISCUSSIONS ON the status of the Pottstown plant, which employs approximately 2000 workers, will continue at next week's meeting. Dana corporation officials announced closing of the borough plant this past Sept. 8.

Since that announcement international union officials have been trying to induce the company to reconsider the decision.

Choked Heater Stack Brings Out Firemen

The blocked stack of a bucket-a-day coal heater flooded a Walnut street home with smoke and brought a call to Philadelphia Steam Fire Engine company yesterday at 2:50 p. m.

Smoke poured out when a fire was started in the heater, at the home of Mrs. Amelia Sheha, 518 Walnut street.

Edward Scheetz drove a Phillies' pumper to the scene, but firemen did not have to go into action because neighbors already had taken apart and cleaned the stack.

Eighth Ward Citizens To Vote at New Place

Pottstown's Eighth Ward voters will cast their ballots at a new polling place at the general election Nov. 4.

The Eighth warders, one of the largest voting delegations in the borough, will vote in Grace Lutheran church, on West street between North Charlotte and North Evans street.

This was announced yesterday by Calvin Rigg, chief of the Montgomery county election bureau.

The Eighth ward polling place formerly was in a garage at North Charlotte street and Jefferson avenue.

CAR IS FORCED OFF HIGHWAY BY SPEEDING AUTO

Sedan Hits Two Trees
On Sunnybrook Road;
Driver Uninjured

A 14-year-old sedan rammed out of control and struck two large trees along Sunnybrook road yesterday afternoon when an unidentified motorist forced the old car off the road.

John A. Hane, 345 Chestnut street, was heading south on Sunnybrook road on a sharp curve about a mile north of Route 422 when the accident occurred.

He explained, "Another car came around the bend on the wrong side of the road and I got as far over as I could and then had to climb a bank."

"When I got up the bank the steering went bad and I lost control and hit two trees. The bumper was wrapped around one of the trees."

"I got out of the car and tried to catch the license number of the motorist but he was almost out of sight. Just as the accident (Continued on Page Fourteen)

Second Meeting Set By Union, Company On Spicer Closing

A second meeting of Dana corporation executives, members of the United Auto workers international union and management and union representatives of the Pottstown Spicer plant has been scheduled for next Thursday.

Richard Gosser, international vice president, has invited R. B. Haynes, Dana corporation vice president, L. J. Haney, Dana director of industrial relations, Morris R. Gavin, Spicer plant manager, and James Spargos, Pottstown director of personnel, to the conference.

Site of the conference has not been chosen.

This past Sept. 25 representatives of union and management discussed all avenues leading to the closing of the sprawling Spicer plant.

They met in the John Bartram hotel, Philadelphia.

DISCUSSIONS ON the status of the Pottstown plant, which employs approximately 2000 workers, will continue at next week's meeting. Dana corporation officials announced closing of the borough plant this past Sept. 8.

Since that announcement international union officials have been trying to induce the company to reconsider the decision.

Each stone in this house is a different shape, and the veins of color in the stone range from white to gray to yellow to deep maroon. The home was finished two years ago by Fred Jones and Son, Pottstown contractors. Downstairs is a living room that is about 24 by 19 feet (the bay window is 16 feet wide); dining room, kitchen, two bedrooms and bath. Upstairs are three bedrooms, bath and a big walk-in cedar closet. The drawers for clothing are built into the bedroom walls. What Makes a Newspaper Great?

It's the LOCAL Touch

THE other day a Mercury reader sat down to write in longhand a two-page letter. It was a flattering note. The writer's sentiments probably are shared by many Mercury readers.

The letter, from Mrs. David Emery, Shellbark Farm, Pottstown RD 3, said these nice things:

"The Mercury is doing a splendid job in presenting Pottstown to its residents in various ways.

"The series of school pictures, each an excellent photograph, is as you say, priceless. They will be treasured for many years by a great number of people.

"The 'Know Your Neighbor' (Pottstown Portraits) series has been most interesting and very well presented. It has been fun to learn to know more about many people we have just seen or heard about.

"I have thoroughly enjoyed the pictures and descriptions of the beautiful homes in Pottstown, and I feel we should be very proud of the great number of really lovely homes in our town.

"Last, but by no means least, your bringing the church pages to your readers should be highly commended. We appreciate the Sunday school lessons, and enjoy reading the church activities in the Monday edition.

"Congratulations — and keep up the good work. Again I feel The Mercury is a paper we can be proud to read."

In The Mercury ALONE will you find:—

1. COMPLETE LOCAL NEWS. ALL the news of ALL sources of interest to Pottstonians.
2. COMPLETE CHURCH NEWS, including the listing of 103 or more LOCAL AND NEARBY churches.
3. COMPLETE SCHOOL NEWS. Not only daily reports of school happenings but PAGES of school news, written by pupils themselves from Pottstown's Elementary schools, Pottstown Junior High school, Pottstown High school, and the Pottsgrove and North Coventry schools.
4. COMPLETE SOCIAL NEWS. The happenings among Pottstown's women folk; their clubs, their activities.
5. COMPLETE records of Pottstown BIRTHS AND DEATHS, weddings and funerals, hospital admissions and discharges. Written with the local touch.
6. COMPLETE SPORTS NEWS, with accent on POTTSTOWN'S teams, the news of the Pottstown area, with LOCAL columns by graphic writers.
7. COMPLETE news of THE ENTIRE POTTSTOWN AREA, the news about persons you know and talk to, the HUMAN INTEREST that makes Pottstown a cozy community.
8. COMPLETE LOCAL FEATURES, ALL AROUND THE TOWN, the unduplicated LOCAL column that's awaited avidly by a great majority of the readers by actual survey.
9. COMPLETE FARM NEWS. Daily records of prices and hints that makes your life more liveable.
10. COMPLETE WEATHER NEWS . . . that tells you the intimate details of seasons and how Pottstown greets them.
11. COMPLETE ADVERTISING NEWS. THIS IS IMPORTANT, because the housewife saves many a penny by reading ALL the Pottstown advertising.
12. COMPLETE CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING — the intimate friendly little advertisements that gain so much readership.
13. COMPLETE LABOR NEWS . . . COMPLETE CLUB NEWS . . . COMPLETE LODGE NEWS . . .
14. COMPLETE features, some of the nation's best columnists, 15 daily comic strips and panels.
15. COMPLETE local editorials, augmented by comments on the national scene. A COMPLETE local "Readers Say" department, where readers tell how they feel about local issues.

JUST the other day—it was on Tuesday, October 7—The Mercury set a record for giving its readers exactly 102 LOCAL ITEMS OF NEWS — and this did not include sports items, Royersford and Spring City news, Boyertown coverage and the like. Yes, 102 POTTSTOWN news stories in one single issue.

Why, The Mercury is covering the field so thoroughly that it requires larger and fatter newspapers . . . and the reader is getting a break there. For instance, in the past ten days, The Mercury has had so much news to present its readers that it printed 20 or more pages every day. In fact, 20 pages was a "skinny" paper. It happened only once in that time. Twice the reader received 32 pages, three times 26 pages, and today 36!

Nowhere else will you find the LOCAL TOUCH, provided by Pottstown newswriters . . . the SYMPATHETIC TREATMENT of local understanding . . . the HOMETOWN pride for a better Pottstown . . . the CIVIC INTEREST of a community institution.

EVERY day Mercury readers sit down to write the editor. Mrs. George H. Rickers, Pennsburg RD 1, points up what she admires about The Mercury. She said:

"You do so much good with your paper that I want to thank you for all my family. We think The Mercury one of the finest papers we have ever read."

The Mercury is grateful for such fine praise. It likewise is thankful that it has been given an opportunity to "do so much good."

The Mercury HAS A HEART. It has fought for the oppressed. It has helped the sick and the injured. It has found homes for those living in tents. It has saved some homes marked for destruction—homes bought by penny-by-penny saving.

The Mercury has led the parade for progress. It has campaigned strenuously for civic improvement, for better schools, for more borough services. The Mercury is where people turn when they need help and advice.

That's why 20,810 subscribers avidly reach for The Mercury daily, scan it with great interest. It's YOUR newspaper!

THE Mercury takes a low bow in recognition of this fine praise for some of its local features. It's true the many pictorial series probably are unequaled in any daily newspaper in any city of comparable size.

But The Mercury isn't only noted for its pictorial features, although they are the talk of the entire trading area.

The Mercury has won national acclaim for its local news coverage, daily reporting that brings you a COMPLETE record of ALL the news.

Mercury readers have taken particular notice of this within the past few days. A record has been set for completeness of coverage, for a versatility of news, for a large volume of daily items.

Pottstown Portraits

A Quick Look at Your Neighbor

By IRV ROLLMAN

IT SEEMS THAT WHEN A WOMAN GETS INTERESTED in an activity, she goes all the way and puts a lot of work into it. Sometimes so much goes into it that she becomes a near stranger to her family. But that is not the case with Mrs. Stella W. Bickel, 26 East Fourth street. She is active in local groups but she is also active at home.

In addition to her work with the local Parent-Teacher association and with Brownie Troop 11 at Emmanuel Lutheran church, which keeps her very busy, this Pottstown housewife and mother does her housework, cooking, baking and parental duties and does them all well.

For a woman with two growing children, Mrs. Bickel has a big job on her hands to be able to take on the extra duties as Brownie leader and member of the Pottstown City council of PTAs. Even so, there are indications that she may be taking over additional chores with more groups here.

"There are only seven days in a week," Mrs. Bickel says, "and a person can only do so much. I guess if there were more days in the week, I'd probably be doing more. Right now, I'm limited — and for my own good."

Mrs. Bickel has been a PTA member for five years. She had been financial chairman of the Lincoln school PTA for two years from 1948 to 1950. In the latter year she was named president of that group, a term she served for two more years. Since a president can serve only two years in the top office, Mrs. Bickel moved up the ladder to the council.

For more than a year now, Mrs. Bickel has been leader of the Brownie troop at Emmanuel Lutheran church. Ever since her daughter Judith, who is now 7, joined the troop, Mrs. Bickel has been its leader. She plunged into the work cold, but with a will.

Since she has been with the troop, Mrs. Bickel has directed the girls on several projects. Among them have been weaving pot holders for gifts for the mothers and basket weaving for Mother's Day gifts. Right now the girls are working on a "special secret Christmas project" for gifts for both mothers and fathers.

"All the work the girls do," Mrs. Bickel says, "is in the form of doing something for others. That is one of the essentials of Scout work."

Recently, the girls sent a large package of sewing equipment overseas. It was destined for those less fortunate people who did not have that equipment. And the past Easter, the girls sent fruit baskets to the children's wards of the two local hospitals.

The work with the Brownie troop is becoming more exacting each day, Mrs. Bickel points out. One of the reasons for this is the fact that her troop is larger than it should be. And the big troop is a big undertaking for her and her two assistants. There is a big interest in the Brownie movement, Mrs. Bickel explains, but it is among the girls. There is not enough adult interest in it, she says.

"I feel sorry for these children," Mrs. Bickel says. "They come swarming in and we accept their membership because there is no other group they can work with. But when you have so many, you can't do a real good job for them."

Several churches, Mrs. Bickel says, have indicated that they would like to start Brownie troops, but they find that there is a lack of adult leadership. This lack creates another problem, she says, and that is providing an organized activity for older groups of girls.

Mrs. Bickel is a native of Hamburg, Pa. She attended schools in Perry township and was graduated from high school there in 1932. Following graduation, the former Stella Wert kept house for her widowed father until 1929 when she married George D. Bickel, who was employed at Doehlers.

Before her marriage, Mrs. Bickel did some dramatic work in church programs in Hamburg. Following her marriage and moving to Pottstown, Mrs. Bickel was a member of the Jessie Cronk circle at Emmanuel Lutheran church. She engaged in no other activities and for the next few years was very busy raising a family.

Right now, she is on a tight schedule, which as she puts it, "is not one bit elastic." Somehow or other, with all her work, she manages to get it all in. Her time at home may include anything from planning a PTA program to cutting patterns on the "secret Christmas project" of the Brownies.

PROBABLY NO OTHER PERSON IN POTTSTOWN IS as widely known both for his activities in business and his favorite past-time than is Raymond G. Greiner, 761 Charlotte street. Greiner is the sort of fellow who puts in a lot of time each day seeing and working with people in his insurance business and then gets out to meet a great many more in his bowling.

Although he has been bowling since he was 16, Greiner puts a great deal of emphasis on his insurance work than he does on his favorite sport. In fact this year he has been forced to curtail his bowling to some extent because it interfered with his work.

To Greiner, his work is the important thing. In it he gets around the Pottstown area, meeting people and working with them for their benefit. His job of selling insurance is one in which he is selling to protect families against "the loss of the breadwinner."

"It is a job," he points out, "that requires a lot of thought and planning."

Greiner began working in the insurance business 27 years ago. Prior to that he had worked as a clerk doing general office work at the Glasgow Iron works. He started the clerk's job a year before he finished school and worked on it for about nine years.

Greiner was born in New Hanover on Sept. 27, 1899. He attended school there and then attended the Pottstown Business college. Following his graduation in 1916, Greiner held the job as full-time clerk at the iron works until just before the company closed down.

While at the foundry, Greiner did all the paper work and handled the company's group insurance work. As a result, he became interested in insurance work and as soon as an opening turned up with Prudential Insurance company, Greiner took the job.

"At first it was kind of tough," Greiner remembers. "I had no experience at selling and this was all new work to me. But I was pretty well known from the old Ideal Athletic club and I made out fairly well."

But Greiner's activities before he took the insurance job were enough to keep him in the public eye. He had been president of the Ideal AC and he had bowled with the Yankees at the YMCA for some time before the foundry went out of business. And besides that a distinctive nickname was just catching on.

It all came about while Greiner still was working as a clerk. An excursion was planned to Hershey park and it was set for a Saturday. Since Greiner and the other employees of the foundry worked six days a week, he had to get permission to take the day off. Wilmer Rigg, who worked in the mill, began calling him "Hershey." The name stuck.

In his 27 years in the insurance business, Greiner has noticed a big change in the insurance business. People are more insurance-conscious, he says. They have been educated to insurance and see it as something for their benefit.

Greiner began bowling before World War I. At that time there was only one set of alleys in Pottstown. That was at the YMCA. There you could only bowl on Saturday. After your bowling improved, you could substitute for one of the regular weekday bowlers.

About 20 years ago Greiner helped organize the Pottstown City Bowling league. He has been a member of the committee which organized it and its treasurer since it was formed. In addition, Greiner bowled with the Elks team in the interstate league. He began bowling with that team in 1927 and about a year after joining it, he was awarded a bowling ball for the highest individual score in one season.

Outside a little "backyard farming," Greiner has few other activities. That is, outside of his work at Grace Lutheran church where he has been a member of the vestry for about 25 years. Greiner served on the vestry for 19 years and then had to drop out for two years. After he returned to vestry membership he was re-elected recording secretary of the group, an office he held for the 19 years he had been on the vestry before he dropped out. He is now in his fifth year as secretary on the second time around.

Greiner was married on June 29, 1935, to the former G. Lucille Hartz of Birdsboro. The couple has one daughter, Barbara, 16, who is a twirler with the Senior High school band. Barbara is a Junior at the High school.

14 Persons Are Killed In Brazil Plane Crash

PORTO ALEGRE, Brazil, Oct. 15

A Brazilian airliner crash landed yesterday killed 14 of 16 persons aboard, Aerovias Brasil announced tonight, and split a touring Argentine orchestra among the living and the dead.

Five orchestra members were found dead in the flaming wreckage. The three other musicians and a Porto Alegre student, apparently thrown clear, were not even seriously injured.

The DC-3 crashed in dense woods on a farm near Sao Francisco de Paula, about 54 miles northeast of Porto Alegre, three minutes after it was due to stop here en route to Buenos Aires from Rio de Janeiro via Sao Paulo. Search planes located the wreck today and rescue parties took over.

Chamber to Petition US Housing Agency For Hilldale Relief

Pottstown Chamber of Commerce directors yesterday voted to ask the U.S. Public Housing administration to aid families in Hilldale threatened with possible eviction.

The proposal, made by James J. Moore, chairman of the Chamber's housing committee, was to contact the PHA director and ask that everything possible be done to stay the evictions until adequate alternative housing could be provided for the 176 families now living there.

The possible eviction is a result of PHA's decision to give up ownership of the buildings, and the uncertainty as to whether any other group will assume ownership.

The directors also approved Moore's proposal that questionnaires, which he has prepared, be sent to Hilldale families. The questionnaires are aimed at learning details of their housing needs.

Borough Manager Horace B. Gulden spoke to the group on the proposed $750,000 street bond issue that will be on the borough election ballot next month. He said the PHA director and ask that everything possible be done to stay the evictions until adequate alternative housing could be provided for the 176 families now living there.

The noontime meeting was held at Brookside Country club. President James S. Wilke was in charge.

Mock City Built for GI Combat Training

The U.S. Army has unveiled its most elaborate mock city since World War II at its up re- sistance in cities. The combat in cities training range at the A. P. Hill military reservation at Bow- ing Green, Va., has 20 buildings, most of them three stories high, and a village square. Demolition and dummy bazooka charges are set off in the European-like village as GI's practice house to house combat. The trainees fire live ammunition at cardboard dummies which pop from doors.

Both Parties Looking For Record Turnout At Nov. 4 Election

By Staff Correspondent

NORRISTOWN, Oct. 15—Both the Republicans and Democrats are looking for a record turnout at the polls in Montgomery county for the presidential election on Tuesday,
Nov. 4.

The optimistic outlook of the leaders of both parties is based on the all time high vote registration which has reached almost 200,000.

Kenneth H. Hallman, chief clerk of the Registration commission, said that the voter enrolments include 158,762 Republicans and 144,115 Democrats.

Mr. Gov. Flood H. Wood, chairman of the Republican County

Committee, has indicated that a heavy turnout is expected in the election. He said that the Republican Party is looking for a re-

Eisenhower Ends Southern Drive With Pledge on Nation's Finances

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 15 (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower closed a blazing campaign drive through the South today with a warning and a pledge, both concerned with the dollars-cents position of the country if he is elected president.

The warning: "If we were suddenly cut off from the rest of the world our entire agriculture and industrial economy would collapse."

The pledge: "We are not going to see the headlines again. We have pledged the full power of Government to prevent a depression."

At the same time, speaking at Memphis in the heart of the Tennessee valley, Eisenhower praised the results of the Tennessee Valley authority but he said the TVA should not be considered as the answer for all such developments throughout the country.

300 at Columbia Sign Advertisement Backing Stevenson

NEW YORK, Oct. 15 (AP)—The latest phase in the political strife between the two major parties emerged tonight in a full-page newspaper advertisement backing Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson and signed by 300 faculty and staff members.

The advertisement in the New York Times declared that "the high level of his (Stevenson's) campaign is a landmark in the history of American politics."

The advertisement said it was paid for by "the volunteers for Stevenson on the Columbia university faculties and staff, and their families and friends."

Earlier in the day 30 Columbia faculty members announced their support of Dwight D. Eisenhower for president.

THE 30 professors and administrators—including football Coach Lou Little—signed a statement calling the Republican nominee "the best qualified candidate for the office."

The statement was issued in the wake of an announcement by journalism Dean Carl W. Ackerman that he was backing Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson even though university officers "have been urged to remain silent on the campaign."

Eisenhower noted an advertisement in a Memphis newspaper which appeared to be a re-print of an editorial page from the Nashville Tennessean. It carried an editorial statement captioned "look out in the valley" and a cartoon showing Eisenhower watching the dynamiting of a dam labeled "TVA."

Eisenhower repeated the statements about TVA he had made in Memphis a few hours earlier in which he praised the project, but said it was not necessarily the way to meet water and power problems everywhere in the country.

He called insinuations that he is opposed to public power an example of "misguided mind-reading."

In Memphis, Eisenhower addressed a crowd estimated at between 22,000 and 25,000 people from a rostrum on Chickasaw bluff. The audience was one of the largest he has received on this section of his campaign tour.

UN Employee Admits Joining Red Party

NEW YORK, Oct. 15 (AP)—The Senate subcommittee probing American United Nations employees, after questioning 12 witnesses, today found one who admitted she had been a Communist.

Ruth Elizabeth Crawford, who has a $9000-a-year job as publications officer of the UN Children's fund, said she joined the party in 1935, was a member for more than a year, and still was sympathetic with the party "in some respects."

She added that she was "not apologetic" about having once joined the party, but had not disclosed it when hired at UN because "no one asked me."

A spokesman for UN Secretary-General Trygve Lie said recently that applicants for UN jobs were asked for references and complete records of past employment and "any other activities considered pertinent."

He said employees could be summarily fired for omitting pertinent information but the UN did not have the facilities for screening applicants such as the US Civil Service or FBI does.

Former Postmaster, 10 Others Indicted For Job-Sale Racket

CHICAGO, Oct. 15 (AP)—A former Chicago postmaster and ten other persons were indicted today by a Federal grand jury on charges of operating a job-selling racket among postal employees.

John Haderlein, 56, who resigned Aug. 22 as Chicago postmaster—four days before the grand jury sessions began—was accused in a ten-count indictment of accepting $2475 in bribes from postal clerks who wanted to become foremen.

In all, nine indictments were returned before Judge J. P. Barnes in District court.

Besides Haderlein, the defendants named are Frederick P. Wall, 37, former secretary of Rep. William L. Dawson (D-Ill.); Raymond W. Regan, 43, an auditor in the office of the Cook county Superior court clerk; Julius L. Echeles, 37, Chicago lawyer; Paul Echeles, 47, a post office clerk; Max Lewis, a postal clerk; William M. Zipperman, 49, a Chicago lawyer; Harry S. Jacobs, 46, a Chicago lawyer; Charles P. Conrad, 38, a bartender and part owner of a Chicago tavern; Arthur Reda, 43, not otherwise identified; and Rudolph C. Brosius, 45, a truck driver.

Lewis Throws New Strike Threat

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 15 (AP)—John L. Lewis threw a new all-out coal strike threat at the industry today.

even as several thousand miners stayed away from the pits demanding an immediate pay raise. Lewis, winding up the UMW's 41st convention in Cincinnati, told his miners:

"I don't want any union to go to work on the (November) 18 unless it is found that the welfare is paid."

Lewis referred to the 40-cent a ton royalty payment operators agreed to pay into the UMW's welfare fund. The agreement was made when a new contract was signed with the union the past month.

LEWIS POINTED out that a new provision of the contract requires each mine owner "must certify by Nov. 18 and the 18th of each month thereafter that he has paid the royalty covering production."

OPERATION STARTS — ERIE, Oct. 15 (AP)—Pennsylvania Electric company said today a new 50,000 kilowatt turbo-generator is now in daily operation at its front street station in Erie. Ground for the 12 million dollar addition to the plant was broken in July, 1950.

Heavy Fighting Reported in Korea After Costly Red Counterattacks

SEOUL, Thursday, Oct. 16 (AP)—Heavy fighting was reported in progress today in Central Korea after a night of bitter and costly counterattacks by Chinese Reds.

Today's continuing action appeared to be centered around honey-combed Sniper ridge where the Reds threw six attacks last night. Two miles to the west, US Seventh division troops on newly-won Triangle hill last night beat back a battalion of Chinese, killing an estimated 300. Many died on barbed wire thrown up around the crest.

The Reds swung their punch eastward today against the South Korean Second division on Sniper ridge to relieve pressure in the Triangle hill area.

Frontline reports on the action were confusing. One Allied officer said Chinese swept into caves and bunkers just west of Pinpoint hill, the dominating height on Sniper ridge. This suggested the Reds may have driven an actual wedge in the crest itself.

THROUGHOUT LAST night, the South Koreans battled Communist counterattacks in strength up to 1000 men. Chinese mortars and artillery raked the South Korean positions.

Some 17 miles to the west, screaming Chinese and others sounding weird notes on flutes, won a hill early today from South Koreans in savage hand-to-hand fighting. The attack was preceded by heavy Red artillery and mortar fire. At last report, the South Koreans were counterattacking.

The Red-won hill is just east of Quemoy, an island held by the Nationalists south of Nanjih, gave this account.

The Nationalist guerrillas struck Nanjih the night of Oct. 10, China's Independence Day.

World News Briefs

MOSSADEGH ATTACKED — TEHRAN, Iran, Oct. 15 (AP)—Premier Mohammed Mossadegh drew public attacks from two quarters in Tehran today and in London the British Government scored him for his conduct in the bitter Anglo-Iranian oil dispute.

The British blast accused Mossadegh of forgetting vital British assistance to Iran after World War II and committing acts overstepping the limits of international courtesy. It accompanied impatient rejection of the premier's latest conditions for an oil settlement.

"Let us now highly resolve that we will retain these accomplishments and that we will let no man take them away. We can do it. We can do it."

The owners can't pay the new rates they've agreed to until the Government okays the raise which brought the miners' basic wage to $18.25 a day effective Oct. 1.

GOV. STEVENSON BLASTS TEAM OF GOP OPPONENT

Taft Called Quarterback Of Isolationists and Cut-Throats

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 15 (AP)—Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson said tonight that Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower has rounded up a team of "isolationists and cut-throat reactionaries" quarterbacked by GOP Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio.

Heaping ridicule and scorn on his Republican opposition, the Democratic presidential nominee pointed hard at a favorite target—what he calls the "old guard" around Eisenhower, his rival for the White House.

He said the group is made up of "stubborn, obstinate men who have had to be dragged, screaming and kicking, into the 20th century."

In a speech prepared for delivery at the Cow Palace auditorium, Stevenson said he has a hunch "that a lot of people, Republicans and Independents, have decided that it is indeed time for a change—to the Democratic ticket."

Stevenson listed Nixon at left halfback on the Eisenhower team, and said: "we would take his enthusiasm for investigation and disclosure more seriously if he would do a more complete job on himself."

Elections in Alaska Are Led by Democrat

JUNEAU, Alaska, Oct. 15 (AP)—Alaskans apparently voted yesterday to return their Democratic delegate to Congress by a narrow margin, but first day returns indicated the probability of a sharp turn toward a Republican Legislature.

The voting for the Legislature is viewed by many Alaska political leaders as a national "political weathervane" because of the close parallel in recent years between the trend in the territory and the November swing in the States.

E. L. Bartlett, Alaska's non-voting delegate to Congress, who won by a two to one margin in 1950, was leading Republican Robert C. Reeve on tonight's tally, 7462 to 6024.

Chinese Ambassador C. T. Feng delivered the extradition request to Foreign Minister Manuel Tello with documents alleging that Mow failed to account for $5,593,899 while he was chief of the Chinese Air Force office in Washington.

Around the Nation

Truman Starts

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15 (AP)—President Truman sets out tonight to visit, in the three weeks before election, States with enough votes to put Adlai Stevenson in the White House by a wide victory margin.

The back-breaking schedule, its first leg carrying him into pivotal New York and New England, will keep the 68-year-old President on the road with only the briefest let-ups almost until election eve. He plans to close out the drive with a major speech Saturday night, Nov. 1, in St. Louis where he wound up his own successful campaign four years ago.

The "all aboard" call for the campaign train in Washington was set for 10 p. m. Pottstown time.

Army Shows Gun

ABERDEEN PROVING GROUND, Md., Oct. 15 (AP)—The Army proudly displayed today the supergun which it claims will shoot atomic artillery shells, but let it be known it wants an even better weapon.

At the same time, it indicated it is getting ready to make the first true test of the new 280 millimeter gun—an actual shot with a shell having a nuclear fission charge.

POLICE REFUSE MAN'S REQUEST TO SEE BROTHER

Officers Deny Knowing About Grammer Held On Murder Charge

BALTIMORE, Oct. 15 (AP)—Norman Grammer testified in sharp, abrupt tones today that Baltimore county police refused to let him see or contact his brother, George Edward Grammer, during the two days his brother was held before being charged with murder.

Edward Grammer, 35-year-old manager of a New York metals firm, is accused by the State of killing his wife Dorothy May and making her death appear an accident so he could marry another woman.

Mrs. Grammer's body was removed from her overturned car shortly after midnight on Aug. 20 after it careened down a sloping street in north Baltimore, narrowly missing a police cruiser which had just turned into the street.

On her head were several severe deep gashes, Dr. Russell S. Fisher, State medical examiner, said she was fatally beaten with a blunt instrument before the car was sent on its wild ride. He said the car's overturning could not have caused those injuries.

NORMAN GRAMMER said he went to the police station and courthouse at Towson, Md., Saturday afternoon, Aug. 30, to try to see his brother after he was told the police had taken Edward Grammer in.

He said that after every police officer he contacted denied knowing anything about Grammer, Assistant State's Attorney Frank H. Newell III told him, "There's nothing to worry about. But you can't see him."

Norman Grammer said he tried again the next day and finally in

Firestone Officials, CIO Union, Continue Contract Negotiations

Representatives of the Firestone Tire and Rubber company and the United Rubber Workers (CIO) yesterday continued contract negotiations in Cleveland, Ohio.

President Robert E. Garber and William Eber represent Local 336 at the firm-wide negotiations.

A company spokesman last night said nothing concrete can be expected from Cleveland this week.

The negotiations are the result of a vote of a firm-wide pact by Local 336 and by Local 9, Akron.

The two locals represent approximately 13,000 of 24,000 Firestone firm employees. The union constitution provides a majority of the members must ratify any contract.

Local 336 members voted against the pact negotiated late in the summer at Columbus, Ohio, by 210 to 31.

The Firestone section of the policy committee voted at the rubber workers national convention in Asbury Park, N. J., this past month to request a reopening of contract talks.

Six of Firestone's eight locals approved the Columbus pact.

AIR RAID ALERT —

AS IT stands now, Pottstown's civil defense organization does not have the funds to purchase more sirens, and the borough has not appropriated any money for civil defense.

Pottstown's school children, however, improvised their own air raid drill yesterday afternoon under the supervision of Harvard F. Fosnocht, principal of elementary schools.

At 1:50 p. m., three short rings on the school's fire bells sent the pupils scurrying for the safety of basements and first floor corridors. In event of an actual raid, these places would afford the greatest safety overhead and keep pupils away from windows, Fosnocht explained.

Head teachers at each school were responsible for sounding the alarm and supervising the procedure. It was reported that pupils at the Lincoln school evacuated their classrooms for the shelter in less than one and a half minutes.

Speaking for the other schools, Fosnocht said the test was conducted to his satisfaction. He reported that children had received preliminary instruction the day before, and knew exactly what to do when the alarm came.

Stanley I. Davenport Jr., Senior High school principal, also reported a successful drill. With its larger number of pupils, the High school had to accommodate them in the basement, as well as in the lower hallways and with some sheltered under the balcony in the auditorium.

Fosnocht said that the air raid drill system was set up in local schools two years ago with practice alarms held every month. But the past school year saw a decline in civil defense activities with a resulting lack of drills until the one held yesterday.

It is estimated there are about 52 million Protestants and 29 million Roman Catholics in the United States.

Children Take Heed

It took these children at the Lincoln school less than one and a half minutes to assemble in the first floor hallways of the school building when a test air raid alarm was sounded at 1:50 p. m. yesterday. Harvard Fosnocht, principal of Pottstown elementary schools, who supervised the drill, said all children co-operated well and the test was a success.

MONEY FOUND —

found two slips of paper lying nearby on the sidewalk, face down. "Pick them up and look at the other side," spoke the Voice.

He did, and found the slips of paper were Government checks totalling $50 made out to Mary S. Pratt.

DUCKWORTH DIDN'T say what his feelings were when, at his home, he found a Mary S. Pratt, corsetiere, Hanover Heights, listed in the phone book. But whatever his feelings, he called her number.

Getting no answer there, and anxious to get to bed (he's a technician on the night shift for Firestone Tire and Rubber company), he telephoned The Mercury, told his story and asked The Mercury to get in touch with Mrs. Pratt.

When notified, Mrs. Pratt said joyfully, "I never expected to hear about, or see, any of the money again."

She said she had been on her way to the bank when she opened her pocketbook and the money fell out. She didn't know it was gone until she reached the bank. She lost it only a few minutes before Duckworth found it.

When his waking dream was all over, Duckworth said, "I thought I had something there for awhile. But then my conscience made me go back and . . . In his tone was a faint echo of the feeling we've all had when our voice refused to keep its big mouth shut."

CAR DEMOLISHED —

trooper John E. Hahn, West Reading State Police, who investigated the accident was prosecutor.

THE 1949 SEDAN had been going down a steep hill near the old Pine Iron Works when it went out of control. It veered to the left side of the road, then shot back across the road into the former barnyard and straight for the garage, which has thick stone walls.

The driver made a bulls-eye, hitting close to the dead center of the barn-type doors. The long wooden shafts of the roller ordinarily would have been pointing straight at the windshield, but Focht had taken the precaution of pushing the shafts toward the ceiling.

Mrs. Focht said that none of the occupants of the car seemed to have been injured seriously. No injury was reported to State police.

Hahn said damage to Focht's property would be at least $200. He noted that the old farm roller had additional value as an antique. Everything from the headlights to the roof and frame of the car was damaged. It was towed away yesterday morning.

UN ASSEMBLY —

Korea in response to pleas from American Allies and others for such an opportunity.

High diplomatic sources said Acheson had been urged by several delegations associated with the UN to hold his main fire until the UN hears from Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky. Acheson may speak tomorrow or Friday in the Assembly.

The Steering committee, which has authority only to recommend subjects for the Assembly to consider, took these actions in a fast-moving session cleaning up work on a 72-item list in one session:

1. Over violent Russian objections, the committee recommended that the Assembly take a motion by Brazil for the Assembly to appeal to France, Britain, US and Russia to conclude an Austrian peace treaty. The vote in the 13-member committee was 12 to 2 (Russia and Czechoslovakia), with Pearson not voting.
2. With the United States declaring it has nothing to hide, the committee passed on to the Assembly for discussion a surprise proposal by Czechoslovakia asking the UN to condemn the US for allegedly organizing subversive activities and espionage against Russia and Red China and other Moscow-bloc countries.

Ambassador Ernest A. Gross, a United States delegate, said the Czechoslovak proposal was similar to a Russian item the past year attacking the United States Mutual Security act which appropriated money for aiding refugees from the Iron Curtain. He asked whether this was the "peace mouse" coming from the "Russian mountain."

Firsts in Coal Business Common to Clouse Firm

"Firsts" in the Clouse family coal business through the years have been common, rather than unusual. The present business, operated by GRANVILLE E. CLOUSE, is located on West High street, opposite historic Pottsgrove Manor. When the firm was known as Clouse & Son the above pictured high-lift coal body mounted on a truck was the first of this type put in use. Granville drove it for his father, Sylvester Clouse, in 1917. The first ton of pea coal shipped into this area was sold by the senior Clouse, in 1890, from his Parkerford yard. Pea coal then sold at $2.40 per today's ton. Your price now is $18.40. Another first scored by Clouse & Son was the sale of the first carload of buckwheat coal received in this section, about 1914. It was sold to J. W. Evans and Harvey Barlow, Pottstown grain brokers. The price then was $3.10 per ton, as compared to today's $15.60. So, it is little wonder that CLOUSE today is first with service and first with quality. And, naturally, he sells the "first-in-quality" Reading Anthracite coal. Call 1405 today for your coal needs.

RIDGE ROAD

Antique brass and copper buckets and pieces of Fall flowers, dahlias, zinnias, marigolds and asters, arranged about the altar and on the windowsills decorated the East Vincent Evangelical and Reformed church when the annual musicale of the church was held. The event, one of the most enjoyable of its kind, was sponsored by the Young Women's class of the church.

Ferdinand Malenke, Parkerford, well known local organist, was at the console and accompanied Freda Schindler, Spring City contralto, in her numbers.

"Fantasia," George Muffat, "The Bells of Arcadia," Fr. Couperin, and "Come Saviour of the Gentiles," Bach, by Mr. Malenke composed the group opening the program. Freda Schindler's opening numbers were "Beside Still Waters," Bernard Hamblen, and "Nobody Knows the Trouble I've Seen," Negro spiritual.

Following his rendition of "Pre-lude and Andante," the seventh Sonata by Joseph Rheinberger, Mr. Malenke played piano accompaniment to Freda Schindler's singing of the aria, "Amour, viens Aider ma Faiblesse," Camille Saint-Saens, from "Samson and Delilah." In this famous aria Delilah plans to betray Samson and calls upon Love to aid her in her schemes.

Freda Schindler's second group of songs included "You'll Never Walk Alone," Rogers-Hammerstein, and "Trees" by Joyce Kilmer set to music by Oscar Rasbach, both selections being favorites with the audience.

The numbers by Mr. Malenke, closing the program were "Intermezzo," Sigfrid Karz-Ekert, and "Fughetta" in the style of a jazz pastoral "You Raise the Flute to Your Lips," Eric de Lamarter; a lovely Irish air, "The Little Red Lark," Joseph Clokey, and "Perpetual Motion," Lucian Liverd.

The invocation and benediction were given by the Rev. Robert F. Brillhart, pastor of the church.

Mrs. Lawrence R. High, Schuylkill road, entertained members and friends of the East Vincent Neighbors club when a new Home Economics class was organized for the coming club year. Mayme Lovelace, Home Economics extension representative, and her assistant American continent is believed to have been established by Cortez in 1535.

Cook composed the committee in charge of the meal. A short business meeting was conducted by Horace Mower, vice-president of the club.

The members will have a choice of projects to be undertaken this year, and the next class meeting is scheduled for Nov. 12, the second Wednesday of the month. Those present at the meeting included: Mrs. Wayne G. Hoffman, Mrs. Harry W. Funk, Mrs. Walter P. Cook, Mrs. W. Neff Wenger, Mrs. Byron Wenger, Mrs. Lloyd Wenger, Mrs. Howard M. Carr, Mrs. Clarence Anderson, Mrs. Walter Scheib and Mrs. J. V. Styer.

Mrs. Harry W. Funk, Mrs. Wayne G. Hoffman and Mrs. Irvin E. Quizz represented the East Vincent Evangelical and Reformed church at the Biennial meeting of the Philadelphia Synodical Women's guild held in Philadelphia.

The St. Vincent church was represented by Mrs. Irvin H. Kulp, Mrs. Vernon Rapp, Mrs. David Scherer, Mildred Kulp and Vivian Mooney.

Martha High, Schuylkill road, showed slides taken during her last summer's stay in Europe at the meeting of the Gilbertville PTA.

Mrs. Sadie Clewell and Verna Hight, Ridge road, were among the members of the Pottstown Rose society who attended a banquet at the North Coventry Grange hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Scheib, "Sunny Side Farm", Seven Stars road, quietly observed their 29th wedding anniversary.

Ruth Kulp, "Ridgeside Farm", Ridge road, has been enjoying a two weeks vacation with friends on an island off the coast of Maine.

The Women's guild of St. Vincent Evangelical and Reformed church sponsored a bake in Spring City, and the venture was a financial success.

The Married Couples Club of Bethel Methodist church enjoyed a clam bake at the church and about 50 persons participated in the social event. The food, which was caterer-prepared, included, in addition to clams: lobster, chicken, corn on the cob, white and sweet potatoes, onions, all cooked together in a bag.

Pajamas Predominate But Coonskin Cap Wins at PTA Breakfast

Pajamas and aprons were the favorite costumes yesterday at the Wyndcroft PTA come-as-you-are breakfast but even a coonskin cap managed to creep in. Mrs. Edwin Smith's home at 327 Roland avenue was the scene of the affair, held by the PTA sewing committee for Wyndcroft faculty and parents.

Under the coonskin cap—and winning a prize for it—was Mrs. Edward LeGrande, who said she'd just gotten back from a coon hunt when her invitation arrived.

Mrs. Paul Sidley cheated—but the other guests used their imaginations and awarded her a prize just the same.

She confessed that she'd been clad in her girdle when a telephone caller invited her to the breakfast, so she added a brunch coat to attend the affair.

Originally scheduled to last from 8 a. m. to noon, the breakfast, Mrs. Smith said, drew

Attorney Tells Memorial Hospital Auxiliary Women Must Play Larger Role in Shaping American Future

Robert Truckess blamed the downfall of American foreign policy on lack of diplomatic skill in the past in his speech last night to the Memorial Hospital auxiliary.

The attorney told the group, at its meeting in the hospital's nurses home, that the time had come for women to make themselves heard in determining the nation's international relations.

His speech was titled "The American Heritage," and he cited the fall of the ancient Romans in warning against the dangers the dangers the United States should avoid.

Politically alert and active women, Mr. Truckess believed, will compose the foundation for America's successful future.

One new member, Mrs. William Waltermeyer, was initiated during the meeting, and one guest attended, Mrs. M. Cronhamel.

Fifty-five members attended the gathering, at which Albert Pollick reported on hospital births and admissions. The purchasing committee announced that several new tables had been added in the kitchen.

Hospital Donation Day Chairman Mrs. J. Harold Yocom and Mrs. Harry Loughney announced that all contributions had not yet been tallied, but that the affair had been a "large success."

Hostesses for the meeting last night were Mrs. Robert Reder, Mrs. Richard King, Mrs. Richard Lorah, Mrs. J. Alfred Marquet and Mrs. Walter Schwab.

Tomorrow at 1:15 p. m. the inspection group, with borough officials, will have dinner at the Keystone Fire company kitchen.

JUNIOR WOMEN HEAR TALK ON VOTING FACTS

Average Attendance At 98 Percent Mark In Borough Schools

There are a number of possible explanations—unseasonable weather, stricter parental control maybe even less homework—but the plain fact is that average daily attendance through September in Boyertown schools was at an all-time peak.

This was revealed at a meeting of the Boyertown school board last night by Supervising Principal George B. Swinehart who reported average attendance of 98 percent for the district's 1454 pupils, 497 of them in the Elementary schools.

"We consider the figure exceptional," Swinehart commented.

Swinehart also reported that Mary Grim, dental hygienist, has cleaned the teeth of 61 pupils at Lincoln Grade school and examined the teeth of 187 others at Lincoln and Washington schools.

US Will Not Renew Argentine Radio Contract

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina, Oct. 15 (AP)—The US embassy said today it will not renew a radio contract with Argentina for the US Information service here.

Its daily news broadcast had cost about $45,000 a year. On Aug. 18, the Government-controlled station used for the news suspended the broadcasts and they were restored only after representations were made by the embassy.

But a boost in cost to $90,000 a year was predicted and in consultation with the State department, the embassy decided it was too expensive to continue.

TRY AND STOP ME

By BENNETT CERF

A LADY in extremely modest circumstances in Gloversville, N. Y., suddenly visited her bank and bought a $5000 savings bond. The president of the bank, duly impressed, asked her where she had gotten the money. "I'll tell you if you promise not to repeat it to my husband," she proposed. "He has an incurable mania for playing the horses. Finally one day I told him I'd place the bets for him. Instead, I took them myself. When his horse won, I paid him at the announced odds. When he lost, I put the money under my mattress. Now I'll trouble you to hand over that $5000 bond!"

The happiest man he's met in years, insists Robert Q. Lewis, is the parking lot attendant across the way from the CBS studio. After ten years of juggling expensive convertibles and coupes, he's finally passed his driving test.

FELIX THE CAT

By Gary Trollinger

There's an unrest among the peasants. Inklings of a great event to come have somehow leaked out to them. Someone just whispered something to me. What was that?—"the famine's over."

Aren't they feeding you guys this year? What is it with you?

Look again, though, men, boys and any assorted girls who care to test their eyes looking at these preformed spots of ink.

That Norco Wildcat looks sort of skinny. He hasn't tasted victory in two years. That's a long time to go without anything—we repeat, anything.

And the situation pops up this week that might enable the scrawny member of the tiger family to catch a bird for supper—a bluebird, no less. For NC plays Schwenksville Saturday afternoon and the 'Cats are definitely on the prowl.

Schwenksville has been on its tail, being 2-0 and 1-0 to Wyomissing and West Pottsgrove. The only thing about Norco that seems less frightening than either of those teams is the fact that you don't start Norco with a "W."

NORCO HAS played two, hasn't won either, but is only 6-13 in points scored for and against. It's come along strong and from now on it'll be "booming."

In fact, head coach Al Brown is hoping his club will have enough guns to boom right by Schwenksville, Wyomissing and Spring City without wasting too much ammunition.

The Cats will be especially shooting for this week's game. It's fair game, too, for it's open season on Schwenksville again, despite those glowing accounts of what Frank Schutz was endowed with. Those two tromps seem to have disproved that to all concerned.

Norco isn't over confident, however. It wants this one too badly to become that swelled and a win would put it in a tie for first place of the Little Four with WP.

Here's what Brown had to say on the subject:

"(As for Boyertown) It was a slow game, but I think we came along strong from Collegeville to Boyertown in two games. We were disappointed that they beat us, but they did it on a good old screen pass. I'd hate to be the team that plays us this week, though, boy . . . you know, we haven't won in two years . . . I've got two teams ready to go . . . two teams . . . we're after the next three . . . we're booming now . . . oh, yes, I've got big John Petrick kicking extra points now . . . if someone can center them back to him (Petrick is the regular offensive center)."

THE NORCO-Schwenksville tilt is the only actual league tilt billed this weekend, although Royersford and Collegeville meet tomorrow night at Collegeville.

As usual, Bob McNelly had a word of caution before we had a chance to proclaim his 'Fords the touch(hands)down favorite. His claim was that last year the Cols held his club to a 2-0 halftime count. Royersford finally won out by a decisive margin.

The difference in this year's fray will no doubt show before the first half, for no other reason other than that C.T. doesn't have any John Moorehead this year.

We've mentioned that lad before, but just in case you don't get the connection, Moorehead was Mr. Team for the Cols in 1931.

The Cols probably looked their best tying Norco, 6-6, but now their only real running threat, Bill Yeagie, is out with a banged up nose and if Fran McManus' aerial sniping doesn't work wonders, the scorekeepers will have to in order to tabulate the final.

LOOKING backward for a moment, McNelly said of the Shillington scrap his team won by a 26-0 count Monday evening:

"We came out of it without any bad bumps or bruises. We got going the second half because we changed a few plays to suit their constantly changing defensive setup. They were big and I think they had a couple of bad breaks. We made a couple of defensive changes in the second half that helped hold down their air game. We used Paul Kalil and Janssen Frey, a Junior. Frey looked pretty good. He'll be in there somewhere against Collegeville. He's a defensive back."

BOYERTOWN'S meeting with Wilson and the Spring City-Nether Providence tussles will probably be the best tests of the weekend in the area for no other reason than proving just how badly off this year are the two Perk clubs.

After losing two decisive ones and compensated with a "dark-horse" tab, the Bears barely got by Norco. That would seem to prove that either Norco is a sleeper club or the Bears were hibernating up until now.

Wilson lost, 24-0, to Upper Perk on Sept. 20, but will be in the favorite's spot on Saturday, just for the sake of making Boyertown a definite underdog for once and seeing what happens.

Bob Fleming's club isn't particularly big nor experienced, but there looks to be enough potential ballplayers in the squad to swing something soon.

Then, too, we've been waiting for an explosion or something that might carry a long enough fuse to last until next September. Since this seems to be a week for assorted turnabouts of favoritism around here, we'll make Spring City the choice over Nether Providence.

N-P is known not to be loaded to the gills. In fact, it is known not to possess any gills.

Anyhow, it's our belief that given a ball club of average height and weight to battle with, the tiny Pirates could get somebody out on a limb . . . or rather a plank.

SC has lost three straight, but all three teams were above-average or better and hardly a fair match for Ben Cleveland's lightweight.

WRAPPING things up, we got Warren Guldin at Upper Perk-kiemen for a little post-game comment on that 36-12 defeat the Blacks patted Muhlenberg of Berks county with the past Saturday.

Warren thought "we looked better than in any previous game, played good ball. We were even until we drove 70 yards for a touchdown near the end of the half. Hummel's interception and 54-yard run for a touchdown just before the half is probably what broke them. The second half we got two more and just rolled over them. They had a good fullback and they were big, but they didn't seem strong on pass offense. They didn't even throw a pass after halftime. We've got a week off now. (UP plays Shillington

Stranick's Run Gives Toppers 14-7 Victory

Joe Stranick's 30-yard end run gave the Hilltoppers a touchdown in the last minute and a half of play and enabled them to defeat the Shamrock Jrs., 14-7, recently at the Far fields in 150-pound limit football.

Stranick's score was set up by a completed pass to him from Bob Grow that carried the Toppers to the 35.

The victors scored first as Dick Smith ran an intercepted pass back 30 yards for the TD and Grow converted as he did after the last six-pointer.

The 'Rocks scored on a fake handoff and end run by Bill Murray, going 50 yards for the score. Bob Sandoe made the conversion. The Shamrocks, currently showing a 1-1 record, will play any team with top weights of 125-150 pounds on any Sunday, providing their schedule isn't already filled for the date. Full uniforms except shoes will be supplied for all op-downs per game last season in 10 posing teams who do not have them. co-coach Jim Hums announced.

Trojans Ready This Time

It'll be a deflated, savage, solid and what's probably most important — hungry — Trojan Club taking the field Saturday afternoon against unbeaten Phoenixville here.

Fully recovered from the Norristown Air Show, engineered by Fred Cagliola and associates, Heeb Meyers' gridsters have discarded since the Upper Merion game, the satisfied buoyancy of a defeat. At least the play was bruising, less eleven, blackened out the enough to prompt one second cripple list and are blasting each other around the practice field with usual amount of bumps and jars: all the tenderness of housewives at a 50c-lb. beef sale.

And they're hungry (the Trojans, that is).

They didn't like losing one, but two—sheer disaster. And to Phoenixville — nylon sheer disaster.

The Trojans now are looking like they did in the beginning of the season after getting that one bad game that every PHS eleven always seems to have out of their collective systems.

YESTERDAY, as Meyers and his assistants put them through a long scrimmage session, the boys showed the first sign of real block-

West Chester Spikes Trojans In X-Country

West Chester's Warriors of the winged foot trampled Pottstown's harriers yesterday, 15-40, in stabbing the Trojans with their worst cross-country defeat of the year, over the local course.

The victors placed eight men among the first ten, sweeping the first five positions and copping seventh, eighth and ninth as well.

Frank Jackson of WC was across first in 13:19. Earl Rodgers, who has been the Trojans' most consistent performer throughout the season, paced the Blue and White and finished sixth in 13:58.

Lloyd Hughes finished tenth in 14:25 for Pottstown, followed by Dick Bacchi, Herb Hartman and Ron Berthold—all local boys.

The loss was the fourth in six starts for Bill James' boys.

SUMMARY
Jackson (W), 13:19; Golder (W), 13:28; Thomas (W), 13:32; Wright (W), 13:33; Sullivan (W), 13:34; Rodgers (P), 13:39; Asparuz (W), 14:03; Gallimore (W), 14:24; Kirk (W), 14:12; Hughes (P), 14:25.

Inscribed Ball Will Be Used

The ball in Saturday's Pottstown-Phoenixville game at Franklin field will be inscribed with the words, "Pennsylvania in Freedom." This is one of the ways local scholastic football is aiding in the observance of Pennsylvania week.

The Pottstown team has already signed the scroll of all state high school players that was sent to Governor John S. Fine. In addition to those two things, the two PHS bands will use two special formations and play appropriate music and the governor's proclamation and a statement regarding the freedom scroll will be read at halftime.

Local Angler Nabs Big Carp

Sam Eagle of 630 Beech street swung a 37-inch carp over the side into his rented boat the past Sunday, while fishing off Chesapeake City, Md. The catch was Eagle's biggest carp of the year and came on his first fall trip.

The local fisherman, who caught only one or two carp in earlier trips, fished from 3 a. m. to 1 p. m. along with four other area anglers.

Accompanying him were his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Missimer and Bill Missimer. Mrs. Eagle reeled in a 27½-inch carp and the rest got nine carp between them.

Stevenson Will Get Vole From Joe Louis

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15 (AP)—Joe Louis, former heavyweight boxing champion, called on Democratic National Chairman Stephen A. Mitchell today and told him he was going to vote for Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson for President.

Republican presidential nominee of putting on a "doubletalk" campaign, emphasizing one thing in the South and another in the North.

Asked by newsmen what he meant in regard to his first point about conditions for Negro soldiers in Europe in World War II, Louis said that he had found Negroes frequently were given inferior treatment there.

Louis, a Negro, said "I've been a Republican all my life" but gave two reasons to reporters why he could not support Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, the Republican candidate.

First, he said, "I worked under Gen. Eisenhower in Europe in 1945 when I was in the Army and for the American Negro soldier over there, it wasn't so good."

Secondly, Louis accused the soapstone and building stone.

MRS. MILDRED HERRLINGER WINS FOOTBALL FORECASTERS CONTEST

Mrs. Mildred Herrlinger swept the feminine set into the prize-winners' circle of The Mercury's Football Forecasters contest this week, missing only two games over the past weekend to top top listing and four tickets to this Saturday's Pottstown - Phoenixville clash.

Mrs. Herrlinger, 961 South Hills boulevard, and Tom Ibach, 17 Center street, Stowe, were the only contestants able to pick eight winners. Both missed Pitt's upset win over Notre Dame and the dumping of Wisconsin by Ohio State.

Oddly enough, Ibach hit the points for three teams on the nose, but Mrs. Herrlinger's scores were closer. Ibach guessed Princeton's seven, Wisconsin's 14 and also the 14 by Washington in losing to Illinois.

Mrs. Herrlinger missed the Penn-Princeton score by but one point, picking the score at 15-7. It finished as 14-7. She had two other relatively close misses, going astray by six and eight points on wins by Syracuse and Bucknell, respectively. And this week's winner hit Kentucky's seven points in losing to LSU, too.

IBACH IS entitled to two tickets to the Trojan shuffle at Franklin field.

He, Mrs. Herrlinger and all winners from previous weeks entitled to ducats for this weekend should pick them up at The Mercury office.

Stengel Named Manager of the Year For Second Time in BWA Voting

NEW YORK, Oct. 15 (AP)—Honor keep piling up on Casey Stengel. The grizzled pilot of the world champion Yankees today was named Manager of the Year for the second time by baseball writers in an Associated Press poll.

While it was not exactly a landslide, the 61-year-old Stengel had a much easier time of it in the voting than his Yankees did in racking up their fourth consecutive world championship under his brilliant direction.

The No. 1 citizen of Glendale, Calif., was named on 37 ballots of the 72 voting members of the Baseball Writers Association of America. He netted more votes than the combined total of the 15 other managers.

Stengel first won the poll in 1949.

EDDIE STANKY, a huge success in his Freshman year as manager of the St. Louis Cardinals finished second with ten votes. This gave scrappy Eddie the title of National League Manager of the Year. His total doubled that of Leo Durocher, his former boss who did a commendable job in bringing the patched up Giants into second place after being voted Manager of the Year last year. The Cards wound up a strong third under Stanky.

The rookie Red Bird pilot just did win runner up honors edging out Jimmy Dykes, colorful Philadelphia Athletics' skipper. Dykes received eight votes for steering the Athletics into fourth place, two notches higher than they finished in 1951. It was only the second time since 1933 that a Philadelphia team landed in the American League first division.

Tied for fifth place were Chuck Dressen of Brooklyn and Buck Harris of Washington. Dressen, whose fine handling of a poor pitching staff was instrumental in bringing the National League pennant to the Dodgers, received four votes. Harris also got four votes for directing the Senators to fifth place, one game out of the fourth position. Washington, seventh-placer in 1951, was an almost unanimous pre-season choice for the basement in 1952.

In all, nine pilots received backing for the "Manager of the Year" award. Two votes went to Phil Cavarretta of the Chicago Cubs and one each went to Steve O'Neill of the Philadelphia Phillies and Al Lopez of Cleveland.

Cavarretta led his lightly-regarded Cubs to a surprising fifth place in fourth-place, after taking over in mid season following the release of Eddie Sawyer, the 1950 Manager of the Year. Lopez came within two games of halting the Yankees in their drive for their fourth successive American League flag.

Carter Decisions Salas for Lightweight Crown

CHICAGO, Oct. 15 (AP)—Jimmy Carter of New York recovered the world lightweight title tonight by casting Mexican Lando Salas into a gory, outlasted 15 round victim before one of the smallest championship crowds in modern boxing, 5283, at the Chicago Stadium.

The unanimous decision for the frozen-faced viciously-efficient Negro scrapper reclaimed the title the 28-year-old Carter had lost to Salas in Los Angeles May 14.

Salas from Monterrey, Mexico, by way of Los Angeles was a gamecock all the way as he sought desperately to remain the only Mexican ever to hold an undisputed title.

But in becoming the first lightweight to regain his title since Lou Ambers turned the trick in 1939, Carter was in charge most of the way with razor-sharp combinations that brushed aside the peek-a-boo crouch of the persistent Salas.

The sparse crowd paid a gross gate of $27,857 and a net of $21,429 which the fighters shared 30.30 plus a reported $10,000 each from television.

THE BADIY battered Salas said in his dressing room that it was his poorest fight in two years. "I just threw a lot of bad punches and didn't do anything right," he mumbled through puffed lips.

Carter, unmarked and breathing easily after the bout said he figured Salas would fight the same way as before and he did.

"When he came after me in the last 30 seconds or so of each round I met him coming and I held my own. I did it mostly with my left," he added.

Carter, who first had won the title by knocking out Ike Williams in May, 1951, won ten rounds on the Associated Press score card, with the 11th and 12th going to Salas and the second and sixth even.

Jimmy broke open cuts on the beetle-browed Salas and had him also bleeding profusely from the nose at the close of the lively bout.

Salas had his scar-tissued brows protected by strips in his Los Angeles victory, a practice banned in Illinois.

THERE WERE no knockdowns although Carter turned loose all his guns in the 15th round trying to be the first man to floor the Mexican.

Carter's left hook was used magnificently throughout the fight and often he followed with whistling right crosses that jolted Salas.

Whenever he was hurt particularly in third and seventh rounds Salas dropped both hands and glowered savagely at Carter.

Referee Frank Gilmer voted for Carter 81-69 under the Illinois scoring system, which usually gives a round winner a 6-4 edge. Judge Frank McAdams gave it to Jimmy by the widest margin, 84-66, while the other judge, James McManus voted for the new champion, 82-68.

All three judges agreed that Carter and Salas even, while McManus Salas, rallying furiously and tear-saw the eighth and 10th even and ing after Carter like a terrier at McAdams called the second and ter a rat, won the 11th and 12th 15th a draw.

If X's mark the spots where your car stalls on cool damp days...

Get Anti-Stalling Esso Extra Gasoline

FOR FAST STARTS... QUICK WARM-UP

Anti-Stalling is another big reason Esso Extra performs best in 9 out of 10 cars all year 'round

Here's a new experience in gasoline performance... starting power that gets your engine going at a touch and keeps it going.

The only gasoline made to combat cold engine stalling... Anti-Stalling Esso Extra is also famous for quick starting, fast warm-up, high anti-knock power and long mileage. Try a tankful today for real Happy Motoring. Find out why more motorists use Esso Extra than any other premium gasoline in the area served by Esso Dealers!

While you're at your Esso Dealer's let him give your car a complete lubrication and careful check-up for the cold weather driving ahead.

Detroit's Automotive Engineers say that cold-engine stalling has been a persistent problem for years. Under certain conditions, powerful gasolines required for today's high-compression engines evaporate and freeze moisture out of the air, "icing up" the carburetor and causing temporary stalling. This stalling is practically eliminated by the new Esso Extra Gasoline. (No gasoline, of course, can correct stalling caused by mechanical faults or electrical failure.)

What do you suppose will satisfy the soul except to walk free and own no superior? — Walt Whitman.

Red Herring Dipped in Oil

THE Department of Justice has been making many headlines of late. Its spokesmen and publicists have been having a field-day over its grand jury investigation of the overseas petroleum-producing activities of 21 oil companies, including five large domestic concerns.

After all, there's a wealth of good copy in dark hints of "cloak and dagger" machinations by oilmen in foreign lands.

Moreover, as the head of one of the oil companies involved recently pointed out, the Justice department may get a great deal more publicity from alien sources.

In a statement categorically denying that his company had joined any cartel or done anything illegal, he observed that the unspoken charges have given the Kremlin a fine talking point.

It's hard enough to do business abroad, he added, without your own government attempting to discredit you.

This leads to a very interesting point. It is just possible that all the whoop-de-do over international oil development may be designed to take the public's attention away from certain developments that have made Justice Department officials most unhappy.

For example, a Federal judge recently charged that the department had obstructed a grand jury investigation of income tax cases in St. Louis last year.

In another case, involving a government contract fraud, the department allowed a Detroit ex-convict to escape prosecution. There have been many more embarrassing instances of this character.

Break the Dictatorship

CHARLES E. Wilson, director of the Office of Defense Mobilization, proposes that centralized electric power projects be turned back to private enterprise. Under his plan, citizens who hold Defense Bonds would be able to exchange these for stock in a tax-paying non-government corporation which would be organized to own and operate the major projects.

In Mr. Wilson's view, the results would be greatly beneficial to all. He pointed out that the move would cut the national debt 10 percent, break the economic dictatorship of the Federal government, and educate millions of people to the realities of free enterprise.

It is difficult to see how this idea can be logically opposed, except by those who honestly believe that this country's destiny lies along the socialist road, under a system in which the government would eventually own, run, and boss almost everything and everyone. Socialized electricity has cost the taxpayers billion after billion.

It is an insatiable tax-eater, is tax-free, and to make a bad matter worse it has deprived us of the very large tax sums that would be paid if private enterprise were providing the service. And, most dangerous of all, it is a primary weapon in the battle to create a political dictatorship which would follow the European models in all the essentials.

Regulated private enterprise has given this country the best, most efficient and abundant electric power service on earth. It has proven that it can meet any conceivable demand—and it doesn't run, hat in hand, to the Treasury for handouts. Mr. Wilson is 100 percent right. It's time to get the government out of the power business and other business—and to keep it out.

Britain's Atomic Secret

THE British press is naturally elated over the announcement that Britain has exploded her first atomic bomb. There are even suggestions that the English scientists have made some discoveries unknown in the United States, and for which we can be made to pay handsomely.

British atomic research was combined with American during the war, in the interest of security and quicker results. Thus they have been understandably huffy over the McMahon Act, which forbids disclosure of U.S. secrets to our allies. They prefer to forget Klaus Fuchs.

Britain is working on an atom-powered ship, and atomic energy has been utilized to heat an office building. As evidenced by the swift progress which they made in the development of jet aircraft engines, it is apparent that British scientists and technicians are both alert and competent.

New information is always profitable, and the time may be approaching when an exchange with Britain might bring in as much as it would cost.

Driver Angered by Motorcyclists

Cycles Are Dangerous

To the Editor: In Monday's Mercury I read of another motorcycle accident. I hope it serves as a warning to other drivers of the useless, dangerous vehicles.

The fanatics who drive them say they are not useless because they get a lot of fun out of them.

They get a lot of fun out of riding their two-wheeled playthings while other motorists sweat and pray that one of the adults who never grew up doesn't zig when he should have zagged.

The morons who cowboy through traffic on their noisy cycles present not only a danger to themselves but also to every motorist and pedestrian within hearing distance of the contraptions.

Get them off the roads, I say! Ask any of the men and women who have been permanently crippled in cycle accidents and see what they think of motorcycles.

Sure, there are more accidents in automobiles than motorcycles, but there are a lot more cars on the road and although many of them may be used just for pleasure, most of them are necessary.

WASHINGTON

Request For Statistics May Prove Embarassing

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15—President Truman's campaign request that the Federal Trade Commission break down the disposition of the consumers' food dollar may boomerang by advertising the fact that the farmers' share is falling simultaneously with a sharp increase in his taxes, his debts, and his costs of operations.

Although ex-Senator James M. Mead of New York, who now heads the FTC, is an extreme partisan, it is almost certain that he will pigeonhole the White House demand. For one reason, he received it only a few weeks ago, and it would require a long and conscientious study to ascertain the facts in such a complex subject.

Secondly, it would reveal that the statistics might not win votes for the Stevenson-Sparkman ticket in politically important agricultural areas.

They would show that, despite the billions which the Government has spent on farm and price support programs, the producers' share has remained fairly constant since before World War II, when measured in relative purchasing power. The gains have been normal and in accord with the historical pattern of many years.

Moreover, as is true in industry, the farmers' supposed economic status is based largely on the increased use of machinery, their own persistent study of new methods, the railroad's installation of faster and refrigerated rolling stock, and the steady growth of larger and hungrier markets.

In short, the records show the farmer deserves as much credit as Uncle Sam for his more favorable position in the economic system.

CONSUMER'S DOLLAR: Although an X-ray of the component costs of the market basket would admittedly be helpful in many ways, especially in the more prompt and fair settlement of labor disputes, President Truman's memo to the FTC suggests that he hoped to make political capital of it, if it satisfied his purpose.

"Powerful interests are at work," he wrote, "trying to convince the consumer that it is the farmer who is responsible for the high cost of living. Figures of the Department of Agriculture, however, show that the farmer receives only about half of the consumer's food dollar, and far less for other products such as cotton and tobacco. Let us get the full facts on where the rest of the consumer's dollar goes."

Truman obviously has two ideas in mind. The first is to demonstrate that what he calls "reactionary interests" are responsible for today's high prices. The second is to hold out the promise of a larger share than 50 percent, possibly through the two-price Brannan Plan that was rejected by the Democratic platform makers and by Stevenson.

SLIDESCALE FIGURING: Agriculture's experts have been making piecemeal studies of this kind for many years. They concede that a mathematically correct answer is impossible because of so many conflicting and complex factors, as well as seasonal and economic shifts. But their slidescale figuring shows these results:

In the 1935-1938 period the farmer got about 40 cents of each dollar spent on food by the consumers. In 1945, as a result of food shortages and heavy government expenditures, the figure had climbed to 48 cents. It reached a peak of 50 cents last year, and threatens to decline to about 48 cents for 1952. Farm prices have been falling of late, although not yet fully reflected in the retail markets.

Farmers always benefit when money is plentiful, as charts covering a long period of years indicate. Consumers then shift to diets of such profitable products as meats, fruits and vegetables instead of cheaper but filling stuff.

Fit Punishment

To the Editor: I've always held to the theory that the punishment should fit the crime.

So I've got an idea how to deal with whoever it is that's turning in these false alarms, costing the borough a lot of money and endangering a lot of lives of firemen, pedestrians, motorists and everybody else in the vicinity.

When false alarmers are caught, in addition to being fined, and maybe sent to prison, they should be made to run out everytime an alarm blows, say for six months.

After crawling out of bed some cold winter morning, or getting soaking wet from a lashing hose, or crawling up a swaying ladder in a stiff breeze, I'll bet these practical jokers would hesitate to turn in an alarm again.

Our volunteer firemen are doing a darned good job and their free work saves the town thousands of dollars yearly. So let's take care of these wise guys who make life tough for the firemen. Let's show them what kind of work real men do, and I'll bet the number of false alarms will fall off soon.

Pottstown VOLUNTEER

Suggests Police Methods

To the Editor: I see that Pottstown's policemen are crackjack pistol shots.

This, in itself, is a great consolation to a man who has always had a deep fear of walking along unlighted streets. I know now that these uniformed Annie Oakleys at least can hit their target if they can get a bead on it.

That's all well and good, but what about those targets they never get a bead on?

There are a number of instances in which the activities of some in the borough are not strictly within the limits of the law.

I should imagine if a little more time were spent in instruction in the essentials of police work, the record would look a little better. Pottstown needs policemen not Deadeye Dicks.

Pottstown JUST WONDERING

The Voice of Broadway

By DOROTHY KILGALLEN

Hi'ya, Stranger!

DO YOU realize you're helping New York hotel owners set a record by your arrival in the city at this time of year? Skyscraper inkeepers say the present influx of visitors coming by train, bus, car and plane is setting a high water mark, and desk clerks are booking rooms in the suburbs for the hordes who can't be housed.

You were smart to come to Gotham in October. This is the look-season when everything from theatre to weather is invigorating and the tempo of the town is allegro. Mar-quees say "Helen Hayes" — "Shirley Booth" — "Katharine Hepburn" (you never get that all at once in Oskaloosa, now do you, Sam?) and if you keep your eyes open you can see anything from a Christian Dior dress in a 5th avenue window to a Vermeer in the Metropolitan Museum of Art.

THIS IS STROLLING time in New York, and ticket-buying time, and time to do a little experimenting in places you've never been before. The doors of St. Patrick's cathedral are wide open—walk in and discover a strange combination of grandeur and tranquility in the crowded heart of the most frivolous shopping district. See Cinerama, the newest excitement in show business. Treat yourself to a daiquiri at the Rainbow Room around 5 some evening watch dusk come to the most exciting city in the world—that's a thrill, even if you come from a place as big as Texas. Eat cheese cake at Lindy's or ravioli at Sardi's, some time between 11 and midnight; stare at the Runyonesque characters or dig the theatrical celebrities: look for your favorite columnists. It's quite all right to go anywhere in New York — New Yorkers are pretty good oglers themselves.

Idle through Central Park and listen to the birds twittering about where the meeting place will be in the South this year. Chuckle at the silly gossings floating in the little lake and watch the small boys on the play fields making like Red Grange. Observe our mounted policemen—aren't they handsome?

WALK ALONG Broadway at night and blink with the great electric signs. Buy your orange drinks and franks at the corner stands and drop a dime into a beggar's cup. Listen to the sidewalk preachers' screaming their sermons against the noise of traffic and shooting galleries and jazz coming out of dance hall windows. Use your elbows to get through the crowds; scan the faces, daylight clear in the millions of lights from the beer signs and the movie palaces. The great thoroughfare has a definite mood—you never get the feel of it until you hurry along with the throng, hearing the thunder of bowling balls and the tooting of horns and the grating music of hit tunes blaring through the bad loud-speakers of the record shops, smelling the waffles and popcorn and hot dogs and jelly apples and garlic and humans hurrying toward some neon-advertised escape.

Drop in at the Stork club some night after the theatre and see if you can spot Sherman Billingsley, the fellow you've seen on television. Don't miss making one trip to the Automat—it's fun, and the steaks and coffee are great. Get off the beaten track for an evening; try a German restaurant in Yorkville or an Italian place on Mulberry street; if you're the type that still sighs over the "Third Man" theme we even have a zither player left on this island—Karl Schmidt at Hapsburg House.

The Worry Clinic

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

TOM T., 44, is head of the Chicago branch of a national advertising agency. "But Dr. Crane, Tom is afraid of himself," one of his fellow executives informed me at luncheon the other day.

"For instance, when I came into the firm, I told Tom we ought to have a certain food account."

"He told me we could never get their business for they were too high-brow for us."

"But I happened to know the head of the company and helped arrange the contact. However, Tom was so scared during our formal presentation, that he actually forgot part of his sales talk."

"On several occasions he simply placed our display materials on the easel and then took them down again, without saying a word."

"After we finished and the potential client had departed, Tom told me we would never get the order."

"However, I personally called my friend and he swung the account our way. He then wanted Tom to come over to clinch the deal."

"BUT TOM was afraid and had already got drunk. We tried to sober him up. Meanwhile I stalled for time, saying we would have to call him back from New York. That gives us 12 hours to get him presentable."

"As soon as the deal was made, and it brought $500,000 a year into the firm, Tom went off on a 3-day drunk. Nobody even knew where he was."

"From times past, however, I had learned where he often hid away, so I located him on the third day, dead drunk in one of our Chicago hotels."

Tom occupies a high salaried position, but he still has stage fright.

He is gradually losing clients and will probably fade out of the advertising field in a few years at the rate he is going, for he is leaning on alcohol as an escape device.

Two things are wrong with him. First, when he gets afraid, he runs away via whiskey.

DON'T TAKE the cowardly role of partially anesthetizing your brain with liquor. Competition is too keen nowadays for an alcoholic brain to survive long.

Secondly, Tom is still imbued with the obsolete idea that if you drink with your customer, that is the best method for getting an order.

Brave men don't need to hide from customers or their dilemmas. They use their wits and solve their problems, or face the music when they make mistakes.

The real money saver in first class is the postcard. Once a penny, now 2-cents, it's still a good buy because it saves you a third on every message. Some firms even use cards as bills. The post office won't let you dun a man on a postcard—it reflects on his credit—but you can send him a postcard statement of his account. And you can pay bills with postcard checks. The government prints "This side is for address" on the face of its cards. Even so, there's nothing to stop you from putting an ad for your business there. And the post office sells cards in uncut sheets of 20 or 40 to simplify the job for your printer. Although you do pay 4 cents for one of those double cards with a reply portion, you can send it through the mail for only 2 cents. So you're really getting more than 4 cents worth of service.

YOUR HEALTH

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M. D.

NEWER DRUGS for tuberculosis have been breaking into the headlines, and have also created quite a stir among doctors.

These drugs have proved of real help against the disease, but have not turned out to be curealls for tuberculosis, as was first thought by some. We are still not ready to abandon other methods for treating tuberculosis.

The new drugs usually reduce fever and cough within three weeks, and X-rays usually show improvement within a short time.

It has recently been shown, however, that the tuberculosis germs become used to these drugs very rapidly and "learn to live" with them.

There are a number of other treatments that are good. Not until they have proved ineffective in a special case should they be abandoned for the newer drugs. For example, streptomycin together with PAS (para-amino-salicylic acid) give us one of the most effective combinations for treating tuberculosis.

In many cases the newer drugs must also be used together with pneumothorax. This is a method of collapsing the lung temporarily in order to rest it. There are other surgical operations which here, we have built the population of Red Hill to more than twice that amount. We have nearly 1000 persons in the borough.

THE BURGESS said that a classic example of the co-operation of Red Hill residents occurred in 1937. "That year," he said, "the State convention of bandmasters met here.

"We only have one hotel in the borough and it would have been impossible to house all the delegates there, so you know what we did? We took the delegates into our own homes to give them places to sleep.

"That's real community co-operation and the kind of thing which gives the borough a good name. The kind that will bring people to live here, industries to build their factories here and organizations to hold more conventions here.

"More than that, it builds the friendship and neighborliness that every community needs. You can't be a good citizen unless you are neighborly."

The veteran burgess went on to say that the celebration this week was also an example of the co-operation in the borough. He said the committee planning the week's celebration is made up of officials of the borough, schools, service organizations, veterans clubs and other responsible citizens.

Last night's services were begun with an invocation by the Rev. H. H. Krauss, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church. The Rev. Krauss introduced the other speakers on the program. The visiting clergymen had all been members of the congregation.

THE REV. RUFUS E. KERN, retired of Kutztown, brought back memories of some of the older persons in the congregation when he reflected on some of the hardships the church had gone through during the past 50 years.

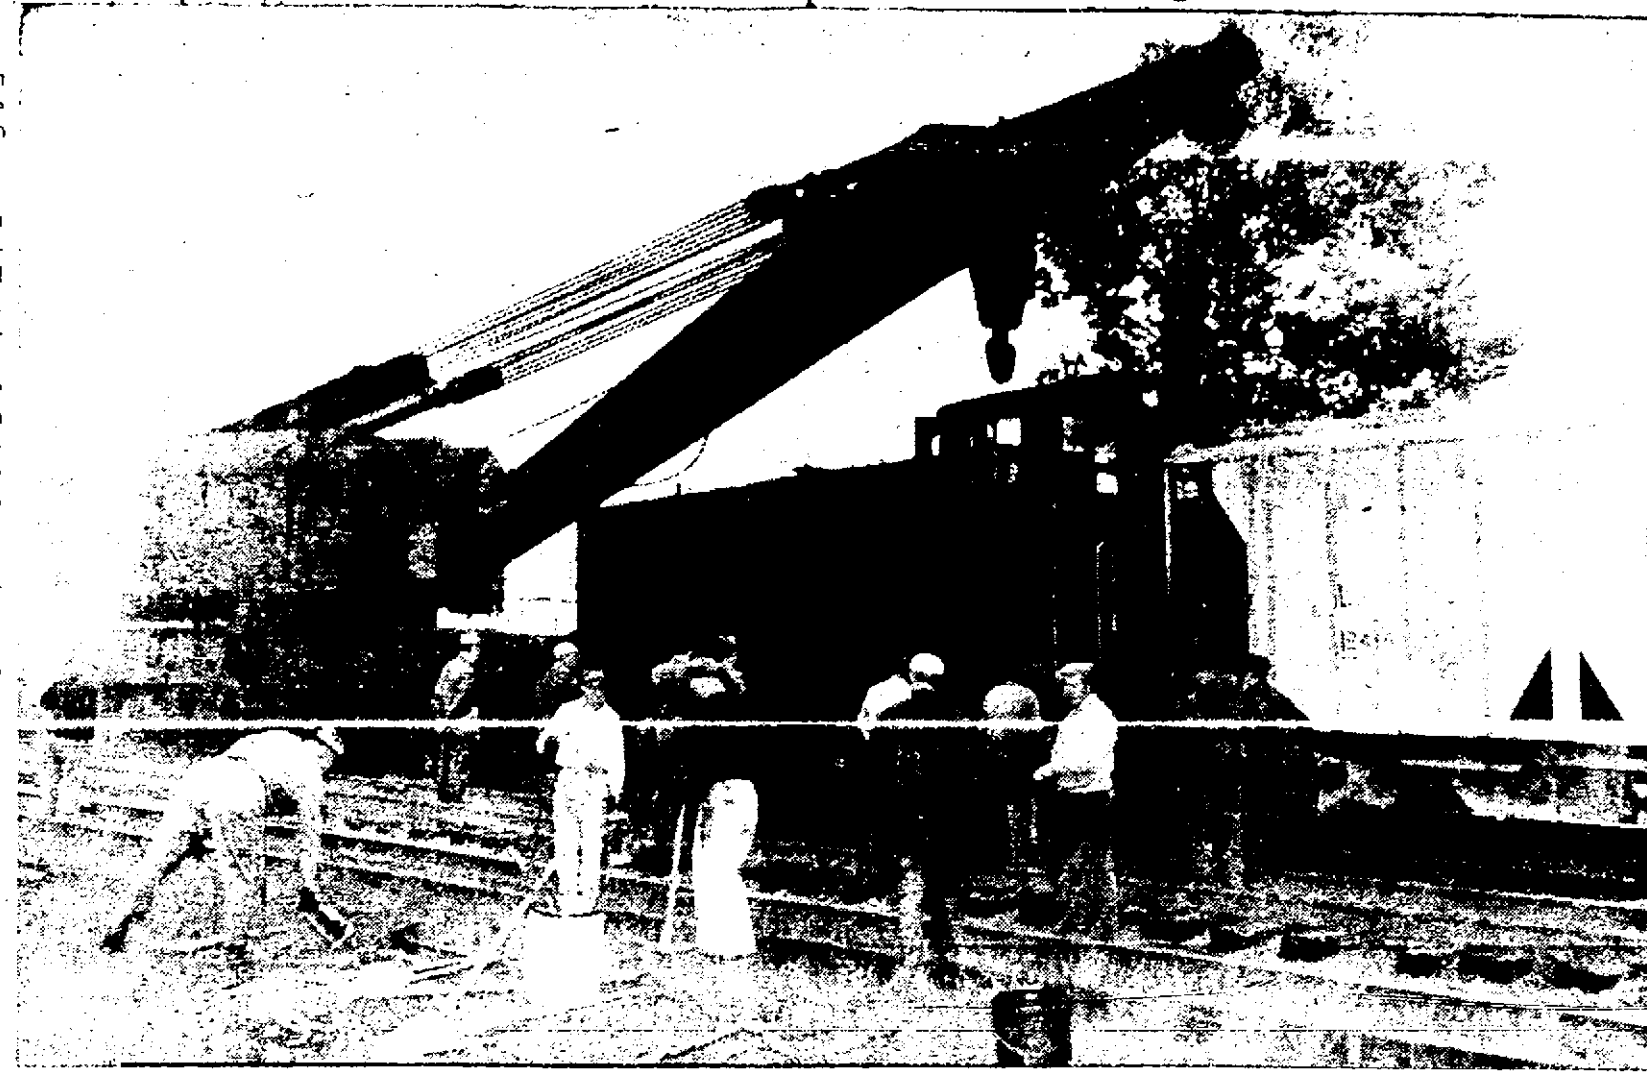

He said, "The church overcame all its obstacles just as the borough has grown into a working division of government — by working together as a unit.

"Now that we have progressed to this stage it is not time just to eulogize and celebrate. What has been done should serve as a starting point of what will be done in the future."

Following the Rev. Kern as speakers were the Revs. Norman Kindt, Troy, N. Y., and Henry Daugherty, Wilkes-Barre. Both boyhood members of the congregation reflected on the happy memories the community held for them and congratulated the borough on its success of functioning as a working unit for the past 50 years.

Tonight, the golden jubilee celebration will continue with service at the borough's war memorial. Perkiomen VFW Post 1209 will be played at points on

According to his prediction it's going to be mostly cloudy today and turning cooler.

After all, Mother Nature wouldn't want to spoil you with too much of a good thing.

ENGINE DERAILED — delays were brief, ranging upward to ten and 15 minutes.

THE BIG SWITCHER was lifted back onto the tracks by a 250-ton crane that headed a work train sent here from Reading. Service on the track was restored by 11:15 a. m.

Twenty-five workmen were on the eight-hour job. Two pieces of rail were damaged and had to be replaced.

Gears in the engine were believed to have been damaged, a company spokesman said, but the extent would not be known until it had been checked in the Reading yards.

Overall damage, not counting the gears, was about $1000. The three freight cars were being taken from the Stowe yards to East End plants.

MRS. ANNIE SMITH, housekeeper, also had placed other gifts and cards in the bedroom to show that many people had remembered Root on his birthday.

It was with modest pride that the elderly man produced a green and white ribbon with a trinket pinned to it.

The yellowed newspaper clipping in the same box said that this was a Silver Beaver medal awarded to Root in January, 1932, by the National Council of Boy Scouts for "noteworthy service of exceptional character to boyhood."

Happy Is The Day When Backache Goes Away

Nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness may be due to slow-down of kidney function. Doctors say good kidney function is very important to good health. When some everyday condition, such as stress and strain, causes this important function to slow down, many folks suffer nagging backache—feel miserable. Minor bladder irritations due to cold or wrong diet may cause peeing up night or frequent passing. Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Doan's Pills—a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. It's amazing how many times Doan's gives happy relief from these discomforts—helps the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Pottstown's Finest

Hope for the future lies in Pottstown's schools. The Mercury is publishing pictures of Pottstown's finest, the children in our schools. Every day a new room of school children will be shown here. Save the series, and enjoy them anew in future years.

Woman Is Accused Of Atom Lab Work

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15 (AP)—The Atomic Energy commission (AEC) said today that Joan Chase Hinton, a delegate to the Communist sponsored Asian and Pacific peace conference, once worked at the Los Alamos, N. M., atomic bomb laboratory.

Peiping radio quoted Miss Hinton as telling the conference in Peiping the past Saturday that "as one who touched with my own hand the very bomb which was dropped on Nagasaki (I feel) a deep sense of guilt and shame at the part I played in this crime."

Actually, an AEC spokesman said, Miss Hinton held only a "minor position" at the Los Alamos lab and that she had nothing to do with the actual bomb development of the A-bomb then was in charge of a supersecret Army agency, the Manhattan project.

Peiping radio identified Miss

Hinton as a former fellow in and then neglected to report the physics at the Institute for Nuclear income in their tax returns studies at the University of Chicago.
